

2011 RULE CHANGES

Effective January 1 of 2011

There are 3 New AQHA Classes and participation changes! PLEASE take the time to familiarize yourself with these rule changes.

403. AMATEUR ELIGIBILITY

(a) The application for amateur membership must be true and correct in each detail. A false statement shall be grounds for possible disciplinary action under AQHA's disciplinary procedure, which includes suspension, fine and/or expulsion from membership. In addition to the requirements of rules 101 and 402, a person is eligible for an amateur membership and maintains eligibility when he or she:

(1) Is 19 years of age on or before January 1 of the year of application and no longer eligible to compete in AQHA youth classes;

(2) An amateur may show in the select classes on the day they turn 50 years of age.

(3) Has not shown, judged, trained or assisted in training a horse (whether or not a registered American Quarter Horse) for remuneration, monetary or otherwise, either directly or indirectly, nor received remuneration for instructing another person in riding, driving, training or showing a horse for five calendar years previous to application for amateur membership; individuals that are age 60 and over and meet the above requirements may apply for amateur status in three calendar years rather than five calendar years, an exception exists with respect to an amateur member certified as an instructor in equitherapy by North American Riding for the Handicapped Association (NARHA) or similar organizations. Such approved organizations shall be compiled and maintained by the AQHA Amateur Department. The excepted instructor shall teach only students enrolled with an approved organization or prescribed such rehabilitation by a licensed medical doctor. Any amateur competitor excepted under this provision shall file such certification with the AQHA Amateur Department prior to any competition by such individual.

(4) A youth who is 19 years of age of the current year and earns youth points from August 1st to December 31st in the youth's final year will count toward Amateur qualifying for the upcoming Amateur World Show.

405A. NOVICE ELIGIBILITY FOR AMATEUR & YOUTH.

(c) Once an individual has earned 25 AQHA novice amateur, amateur, novice youth, youth or open points, or any combination thereof, in a skill set; or, won a world or reserve world in an AQHA-approved event, national or reserve national championship title in any equine organization or association; or won a total of $5,000 in cash and prizes with any equine breed organization, he/she will no longer be eligible to participate in the novice skill set containing that class(es) in subsequent years but may continue to compete in that novice skill set until the end of the calendar year in which the afore-mentioned instances occurred. Any individual who has been an accredited horse show judge will not be eligible to participate in novice skill sets.

(h) Novice exhibitors may participate in an AQHA approved show without the use of permits. This will allow Novice Exhibitors to compete with non-owned horses in novice division classes only. The recorded owner retains the ability to show the same horse in any class other than the same class as the novice exhibitor. This option is not available to competitors at the top 10 show circuits. The top 10 show circuits will be determined by the number of entries in the previous year. For the top 10 shows (provided the show accepts permits), a novice amateur or novice youth member may apply for up to 10 permits allowing them to compete with one permit per show on a non-owned horses in novice division classes only. Points earned by novices, whether using permits or not, will count toward the 25-point cap per skill set for novice eligibility. Applications for permits shall be directed to the AQHA Show Department on application forms provided by AQHA or an application may be filled out at an AQHA-approved show, and be granted as AQHA, in its sole discretion, determines. Exhibitors must have a current novice amateur or novice youth membership to participate. All novice rules still apply whether using permits or not.

Show approval is a privilege, not a right, granted or rejected at AQHA discretion on an annual basis according to continuous evaluation of the applicant, including, but not limited to competence of show management, enforcement of AQHA rules, quality of show, and service to AQHA members. Applicants desiring to hold an AQHA-approved show must obtain prior tentative AQHA approval. To obtain tentative approval for a previously approved show, an application form available from AQHA must be correctly and entirely completed if show results and points awarded to the horses are to be accepted and entered in AQHA records as official. A $100 non-refundable application fee must also accompany the initial application. There are no diskette refunds. For new show approval, a letter of request must be directed to the Director of Shows for investigation. A $100 processing fee for new show applications or requests will be assessed, if the show is approved that amount will be applied as show approval. If not approved, $50 will be refunded to the requesting group, organization or individual. A $25 non-refundable change fee will be implemented for priority date or location changes. For approval of a Special Event, All-Novice, Versatility Ranch Horse. Introductory Show and Equestrians with Disabilities, a $50 fee must be submitted for each date requested. If special event or other date is approved the $50 fee will be applied to show approval. The fee will not be refunded if the special event is not held or cancelled. However, if the special event date is denied the $50 fee will be refunded.

(i) A show not approved or held the prior year is considered a new show. A show will not retain priority dates in subsequent years if it cancels for reasons other than:

•Acts of God (fire, flood, blizzard, tornado, hurricane, etc.)

•Facility conflict (with written verification from facility)

•Loss of facility beyond show management's control (with written verification from facility)

•Conflict with AQHA regional events

(l) Show management has the option of holding some classes the afternoon or evening before their approved show date(s) provided that afternoon or evening does not conflict with another existing approved show as outlined above. For example, at a weekend show, the Saturday show may begin the preceding Friday afternoon and the Sunday show may begin on Saturday afternoon after all Saturday classes are completed. The exceptions being that if a facility has two or more arenas:

(3) One show may begin before the other is finished for valid reasons provided by show management and prior permission is granted by AQHA.

(x) The applicant(s), organizer(s) and management of Introductory Show understand and agree that:

(4) Incentive Fund is not to be paid on points earned at Introductory shows.

408. AMATEUR DIVISION APPROVAL

(b) At show management's option, any number of performance classes may be offered as select (ages 50 and over) and the exhibitor has the option of competing in the select class or the all-age class. Further, management will combine these classes back to an all-age class should there be less than three entries in the select or amateur class. Jumping may only be offered as all-age class.

414. SHOW RESULTS

(a) The results of any AQHA-approved show must be provided in their entirety on official AQHA forms and forwarded to AQHA. All forms necessary to report show results will be supplied to show management upon show approval. Computerized show results must be used by show management, a sample format may be obtained, by request, from AQHA. Show management must submit a roster of all horses entered. Show results will be kept on file at AQHA for two calendar years including the year the show is held. Shows failing to submit show results in an accepted electronic format will not receive priority dates for the following year.

(e) Show management (U.S. and Canada) will be fined at least $50 per day for every day their show results are late after 10 days after the closing day of said show. At AQHA's discretion, failure to submit show results after 10 days of the closing day of the show could result in approval being denied the following year.

(2) Concerning mouthpieces, bars must be round, oval or egg shaped, smooth and unwrapped metal of 5/16" to 3/4" (8 mm to 20 mm) in diameter, measured 1" (25 mm) from the cheek. However, wire on the sway bars (above the bars and attaching to the spade) of a traditional spade bit is acceptable. They may be inlaid, but must be smooth or latex wrapped. A three-piece, connecting ring of 1 1/4" (32 mm) or less in diameter, or a connecting flat bar of 3/8" to 3/4" (10mm to 20 mm) measured top to bottom with a maximum length of 2" (50 mm), which lies flat in the horse's mouth, is acceptable.

(h) In all western classes, horses will be shown in a western saddle and appropriate bridle, snaffle bit or hackamore for the duration of the class. A western saddle is a common type of saddle distinguished by a large noticeable fork on which there is some form of horn, a high cantle and large skirts. Silver equipment will not count over a good working outfit. Horses 5-years-old and younger may be shown in a snaffle bit, hackamore, curb bit, half-breed or spade bit. Horses 6-years-old and older may only be shown in a curb bit, half-breed or spade bit. When a curb bit is used, a curb strap or curb chain is required, but must meet the approval of the judge, be at least one-half inch in width and lie flat against the jaw of the horse. Curb chains cannot be tied to the bit with string or cord. A broken strap or chain is not necessarily cause for disqualification.

A horse may only be exhibited one time in a class in either select or amateur no matter the exhibitor.

(p) A select exhibitor, in select amateur or amateur classes, may show up to two different horses in group classes (showmanship at halter, western pleasure, western horsemanship, hunter under saddle, hunter hack, hunt seat equitation, equitation over fences and pleasure driving) as long as one horse is shown in the amateur group class and a different horse is shown in the select group class. The suggested ranch riding pattern may be used or another pattern may be drawn as long as all elements of the class are fulfilled. The ranch riding class shows the horse's ability to move at a working speed with a rider. Horses will be shown individually at three gaits - walk, trot and lope - in each direction of the arena. Horses will also be asked to reverse away from the rail, to stop and back. The judge must ask for an extended trot and extended lope at least one direction of the ring. A horse will be given credit for traveling with his head held in a normal position, ears alert and moving at a natural speed for the gait requested. Credit will also be given for making a smooth transition between the gaits, for keeping the correct lead, and for maintaining the gait requested until the judge requests a change. A rider must show his horse with only one hand on the reins, unless the horse is 5 years old or younger and is being shown in a snaffle bit or hackamore (bosal). Judges are encouraged to work exhibitors thoroughly, if time permits.
